~~The South Eastern and Chatham Railway Companies Managing Committee is not responsible for loss, or detention of, or injury to Luggage of the Passenger travelling by this Through Ticket, except while the Passenger is travelling by the Managing Committee's Trains or Boats; and, in this latter case, only when the Passenger complies with the Bye-Laws and Regulations of the Managing Committee; and in no case for Luggage of greater value than £10.~~

The South Eastern and Chatham Railway Companies Managing Committee incurs no responsibility of any kind beyond what arises in connection with its own Trains and Boats, in consequence of the Passengers being "booked" to travel over the Railways of other Companies, such through "booking" being only for the convenience of the Passenger. Nor will the Managing Committee be responsible for the Trains or Boats, whether their own or other Companies', over whose lines this ticket extends, being delayed, or not meeting the Trains shown in correspondence; nor for any consequences that may result to a Passenger thereby.

If the Passenger so desires, Luggage can be registered through to the place of destination.

Registration is effected only upon the conditions printed in the "Continental Time Tables" of the Managing Committee, and the Passenger so registering his Luggage will be taken to have accepted such conditions of registration and to have waived any right inconsistent with the same.

Passengers must attend personally to the examination of their Luggage at the duly appointed Custom Houses for such examination.

The Managing Committee does not undertake this duty, and declines any responsibility for Luggage detained by the Customs' authorities when the Passengers fail to comply with the above Regulation.

Unless Luggage is registered to destination, Passengers must, in addition to attending its examination at Customs, see to its embarkation and landing, and pay all expenses attending its carriage to and from the Boat.

For definition of "Passengers' Baggage," see S.E. & C.R. Company's Continental Time Table.

AVIS.

Ce Billet ne peut être cédé ni vendu. La personne à qui il a été délivré peut seule en faire usage.

La couverture sans les coupons ou les coupons sans leur couverture n'auraient aucune valeur.

Il est recommandé au voyageur de veiller à ce que les contrôleurs ne retirent après chaque partie du voyage que les coupons afférents au parcours effectué; les coupons manquants pour une cause quelconque ne peuvent donner lieu à aucun remboursement.

~~Les Compagnies intéressées ne répondent en aucun cas des bagages dont la valeur est supérieure à 250 francs (10 livres).~~

~~LES ADMINISTRATIONS ne sont responsables de la perte, de la retenue ou de l'avarie des bagages du voyageur porteur du présent billet direct, que pour~~

autant que le voyageur soit transporté dans leurs propres trains ou bateaux, et dans ce dernier cas, à la condition que le porteur se conforme aux règlements. Les Administrations Anglaises ne répondent, en aucun cas, des bagages dont la valeur est supérieure à £10 sterling (250 francs). Chaque Administration n'encourt aucune sorte de responsabilité quant à ce qui peut arriver en dehors de son propre service de trains ou de bateaux, bien que les voyageurs aient pris un billet leur permettant de voyager sur les lignes des autres Administrations, attendu que le billet direct n'est destiné qu'à donner plus de facilités au voyageur.

Les Administrations ne seront pas non plus responsables des retards que pourraient éprouver les trains ou les bateaux, ni du manque de la correspondance des trains, ni des conséquences qui en résulteraient pour le voyageur.

Si le voyageur le désire, il peut faire enregistrer directement ses Bagages jusqu'à sa destination définitive.

L'enregistrement n'est effectué que sous la réserve des conditions imprimées dans le "Guide Continental" du Comité de Direction de la Compagnie du S. E. & C. R. En enregistrant ses bagages de cette façon, le voyageur sera considéré comme ayant accepté toutes ces conditions d'enregistrement et ayant abandonné tout droit qui n'y est pas prévu.

Le voyageur est tenu de faire visiter tous ses bagages et d'assister personnellement à cette visite aux bureaux de douane désignés à cet effet dans les livrets de la marche des trains; dans le cas où, cette formalité, n'étant pas remplie, les bagages seraient retenus par la douane, les compagnies considéreraient comme non avenues les réclamations qui pourraient leur être adressés à ce sujet.

Pour la définition des "Bagages," voir les livrets, guide Continental du South Eastern et Chatham.
